

TRAIL of Johnson County 2023 Board of Directors

Allison Andrews (Secretary) is a Neuro Resource Facilitator at the Brain Injury Alliance of Iowa. She holds a Bachelor of Psychology degree with a Certificate in Disability Studies and Certificate in Aging and Longevity Studies from the University of Iowa. She enjoys volunteering, being outdoors, and visiting with friends and family. She chairs TRAIL's Volunteer Committee.

Lesanne Fliehler is a retired University of Iowa communications specialist. She holds a Master of Journalism degree from the UI, and she previously taught English at South East Junior High School after graduating with a BA in English from the University of Northern Iowa. She enjoys the outdoors, attending live music events, movies at FilmScene, and cooking. In addition to TRAIL, Lesanne volunteers with the UI Senior College, the UI Retirees Association, and Riverside Theatre. She chairs the TRAIL Marketing and Communications Committee.

Vincent Gaffney is Vice President-Trust Officer at Hills Bank and Trust Company's North Liberty location and serves on TRAIL's Development Committee. He is a native of Solon and currently resides in Coralville with his wife, Micah, and son, Rhys. Vincent earned both his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Iowa. He is a past board member of the Cedar Rapids Area Estate Planning Council and the North Liberty Kiwanis.

Julie Gridley is a Branch Office Administrator with an Iowa City branch of Edward Jones. She lives in Wilton, IA. Previously, she was a Business Office Manager for a nursing home for six years. She is a service volunteer with TRAIL and values continued connection to seniors. Julie also has volunteered for Meals on Wheels, the Wilton Elementary Library, a local pre-school, and UI Hospitals and Clinics. She has two adult children: their son is in the Air Force currently stationed in Georgia and their daughter lives in Cedar Falls.

Terri Larson (Past Chair) came to Iowa City as an undergraduate, earning a BBA in Business Administration and an MA in Higher Education Administration. She worked for ACT as a program coordinator, stayed home to take care of kids for 8 years, and found her passion in real estate, where she is currently an owner/partner of Lepic-Kroeger, Realtors. She was a member of the Press-Citizen's Writers' Group for 20+ years, co-wrote a Children's Guide to Eastern Iowa many moons ago, and taught an undergraduate class at the Tippie College of Business for several semesters. Both her grandparents and mother retired to Iowa City, enjoying all our community has to offer.

Beth Beadle Legue is a Trust Officer at MidWestOne Bank in Iowa City and a member of the TRAIL Vendor Committee. She previously worked in the Trust Department at First National Bank of Muscatine, where she also served on the board of the Muscatine Welfare Association, a nonprofit providing affordable housing to individuals with disabilities. She earned her JD from the UI College of Law after completing her undergraduate degree in political science with a minor in economics at Knox College.

Janene Panfil serves as Director of Client Success at Leepfrog Technologies and has 30 years' experience in higher education. She holds a BA from Cornell College, and an MA in Higher Education Administration and a JD from the University of Iowa. Janene supported her mom on her dementia journey and has a deep interest in solutions for healthy aging. For fun Janene and her family enjoy biking, hiking, skiing, and sharing home cooked meals together. She chairs TRAIL's Development Committee.

Bob Reynolds (Treasurer) and his wife moved to Iowa City from Illinois in 2020 to be close to their daughter and her family. He retired just before the move after a career in accounting. Bob enjoys his grandchildren, sports, and being out in nature. He chairs the TRAIL Finance Committee and regularly takes assignments as a TRAIL member-service volunteer.

Lisa Steigleder (Chair) is President of the Mercy Hospital Foundation and the Director of Marketing and Community Relations. Prior to joining Mercy as Director of Marketing and Physician Recruitment, she spent 15 years as Director of Sales and Operations for Clear Channel Media in the Iowa City/Cedar Rapids media market and nine years as Senior Sales Executive for GlaxoSmithKline pharmaceuticals. Lisa earned her BA in Business Administration in Marketing from the University of Iowa and has served on multiple local Iowa City committees, boards, and volunteer organizations.

Barb Stein retired from the Iowa City Community School District in 2005 after 35 years as a teacher and school librarian. After retirement she worked part-time for James Investment Group and in the children's section of Prairie Lights. She chairs the TRAIL Social and Educational Events Committee, and enjoys learning about anything that promotes healthy, interesting and active aging.

Alex Taylor is an Iowa City native, UI graduate, active community volunteer, business educator, and entrepreneur. He previously served as Associate Director of Executive Education and the Executive MBA Program at the UI Tippie College of Business, and is now Managing Director of the Iowa Startup Accelerator at NewBoCo in Cedar Rapids. Alex and his wife, Laura, also own and manage Woofables Gourmet Dog Biscuits.

Bob Untiedt, Executive Director, ex officio. Bob joined TRAIL in November 2020 after a lengthy career in nonprofits and community organizing. He is an Eastern Iowa native and a graduate of Coe College.
