

TRAIL of Johnson County 2018 Board of Directors

Charlie Anderson (Treasurer) is an active Iowa City volunteer currently working with TRAIL and the Community Foundation of Johnson County. Charlie is a retired professor of Audiology, and also served as Director of Audiology in the Department of Otolaryngology and Director of the Wendell Johnson Speech and Hearing Clinic at the University of Iowa.

Michelle Buhman (Chair Elect) is the Program Specialist at the Iowa City/Johnson County Senior Center. She has her Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Iowa and a Masters in Gerontology from Iowa State University. She enjoys spending time with family, cooking, biking, and new learning experiences.

Maggie Elliott (Chair) is the previous executive director of Iowa City Hospice and today is active in the community as a volunteer with TRAIL, the Iowa Department of Aging and 5224Good.

Marty Fields is a retired Department Administrator for Hospital Dentistry at University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics. She is completing a two-term commitment to the Board of Directors of the Iowa City Free Medical and Dental Clinic and serves on the membership committee at the Johnson County Senior Center.

Diana Lundell is a communications professional with University of Iowa Health Care Marketing and Communications, and has more than 35 years of experience in health care public affairs, media relations, and internal and external communications. She is married to Coralville Mayor John Lundell and they have two adult children, two large and unruly dogs, and two indifferent cats.

Linda McGuire is happily retired from a career in law, legal and higher education, and public interest and feminist activism. She enjoys being outside, using tools, and participating in other physical activities appropriate to her age and condition. She and her life partner Anne enjoy and manage 40 acres of timber and remnant prairie in southeast Iowa. She is a passionate and unrepentant foodie.

David Rust (Past Chair) is very happy to see TRAIL continuing into a new year. He is a Volunteer Counselor with the Senior Health Insurance Information Program, a singer with the Chamber Singers of Iowa City, and a member of the Iowa Women's Foundation Board of Directors. His career included teaching, social work, mediation and ethics consultation. Travel, the outdoors, good food, cooking, reading, live music and theatre are long-time passions.

Susan Shullaw (Secretary) is an Iowa City-based communications consultant serving higher education, nonprofits, and small business; prior to launching her firm in 2010, she was Senior VP for Strategic Communications for the University of Iowa Foundation. She currently is serving a two-year term as chair of the Iowa Natural Heritage Foundation Board of Directors.

Joy Smith became an active community volunteer after her career in public education, working on behalf of many arts and human services nonprofits; currently, she serves on the Iowa City Public Library Friends Foundation Board, the Iowa Women's Foundation Advisory Council, and is a classroom volunteer at Twain Elementary.
