

TRAIL of Johnson County Board of Directors

Roles, Responsibilities and Expectations of TRAIL Board of Directors Members

- Demonstrate the qualities of successful nonprofit board of directors: belief in and support of our mission, integrity, generosity, teamwork, and leadership.
- Attend and participate fully in all scheduled TRAIL Board meetings.
- Assist in securing philanthropic support to ensure TRAIL's financial viability and make an annual donation at a level appropriate to your position as a leader of the organization, in keeping with your personal financial situation.
- Serve as a positive and effective advocate for TRAIL within the greater Johnson County community and connect TRAIL with individuals and organizations that can help enhance TRAIL's long-term success.
- Volunteer for and willingly accept assignments and complete them thoroughly and on time.
- Be familiar with the organization's governance documents, policies, and procedures and abide by all stipulations contained in Section IV of the TRAIL Bylaws.
- Maintain a knowledge of current local and national aging-related issues, particularly as they apply to aging-in-place decisions.
- Embrace, promote and represent TRAIL's Core Values:
 - Respect for others, regardless of age or circumstances
 - Integrity in the conduct of all TRAIL activities
 - Transparency in our business decisions and financial transactions
 - Sustainability for our organization and the Earth we share
 - Collaboration with individuals and groups that advance our mission
 - Encouraging healthy communities by supporting:
 - Vibrant cohesive, diverse, multigenerational neighborhoods
 - Affordable housing for all
 - Public-private partnerships
 - Healthy lifestyles
